April 4-5th, 2008

The Sequoia Pacifica Region 11 Sweet Adelines, along with the local South Valley Sound Chorus, have arranged for you and your students to attend the upcoming Quartet and Chorus Competitions “free of charge”!

That’s right, free admission for you and your vocal music students.

Sweet Adelines International is a highly respected worldwide organization of women singers committed to advancing the musical art form of four-part barbershop harmony through education and performances.

We’re certain that these competitions will provide an enjoyable educational experience for both you and your students.

More specific information on how to reserve your admission passes will be coming to you in the next couple of weeks.
